SACRAMENTO – Senator Wesley Chesbro (D-Arcata) today announced that Governor Davis has appointed Kitch Eitzen to the California Coastal Commission. Eitzen will serve as the alternate to John Woolley, the North Coast District Representative.

“I have worked with Kitch for over 20 years on North Coast issues,” said Chesbro, who recommended Eitzen to the Governor. “Kitch has served as a planning commissioner in Humboldt County and has been a leader in the community. She will bring the important experience needed for integrating local government and the Coastal Commission process.”

Eitzen served as Chesbro’s representative during his tenure as a Humboldt County Board Supervisor.
